SECRETARIES OF CONFERENCES AND MISSIONS

The following list of Secretaries, with their post office addresses, is published herewith as an aid to the Bishops and Conference Secretaries in making the transfers of preachers, especially during the time of the Conference sessions. Often they are hindered, if it should be the Fall Conference that is being held, in making the transfer to a Spring Conference, by not knowing to whom to send the certificate of transfer. It is hoped this may be of advantage to both the Bishop and the Secretary.

This list is correct according to the latest information. SPRING CONFERENCES are designated by a (*). FALL CONFERENCES are unmarked.—EDITOR.

BISHOP GEORGE HARVEY BICKLEY, D.D.

Born in Philadelphia, Pa., February 25, 1868; consecrated a Bishop at Des Moines, Iowa, in 1920; died at Philadelphia, Pa., December 24, 1924, within a few weeks of fifty-seven years of age.

The Central Christian Advocate by its Editor, and by the pen of his personal friend and colleague Bishop Locke, speak for this splendid servant of God.

The candles of Christmas eve were burning over the city and over the world when, with his youth about him as a garment, Bishop George H. Bickley caught the lights and reached for the open arms of the Christmas-Christ himself.

The character, the personality of Bishop Bickley was so consistent, so uniform, so transparent, that there could be no witness except that of similarity. Those who had become acquainted with him in the meetings of the Board of Home Missions or elsewhere caught the vision of a personality singularly self-effacing, modest and considerate, but clear sighted and adamant when the path was clearly seen. Truckling, petty compromise, were outside the orbit of his soul.

Our daughter has often spoken of the beautiful character Bishop Bickley revealed in the voyage across the Pacific when he went to Singapore—and to his doom. It is all just like the rest. But the equatorial sun and fevers found a weak spot and exacted from him the price—even his death.

The Singapore Area covers by sea and land a space larger than all the United States. It is a puzzle of Malay, Chinese, European, Tamil races: there are five Chinese dialects; and a portion of it is the most densely crowded area on earth. There are 34,000,000 in Java. And the postwar conditions are as baffling as they are next to invincible. It is on both sides of the equator. But the work must be done.

When we saw him approaching on the street at General Conference he was so wan, so worn, we were not certain it was he, but when he spoke there was that familiar half-jesting smile which told it was he. He was broken, he was done. He went to the sanitarium where we said at the time, there was but one open door—the grave.

Christmas eve our friend passed through that door. He has gone to his own place.

By Bishop Charles Edward Locke

It is a mournful privilege to write you that it is with sincerest personal bereavement that I learn of the passing of my dear friend and comrade, Bishop George H. Bickley.

When in the autumn of 1920 five bishops and their wives sailed in the same ship across the Pacific for fields of work in the Orient, Bishop and Mrs. Bickley and their youngest child, Felton, were a very interesting part of that happy company. He was then apparently in perfect health, strong, poised and handsome, and filled with keenest anticipations of success. It chanced that the Bickleys and the Lockes were assigned to the same table, and the friendship of the years began to ripen into an intimacy which steadily increased during the quadrennium, due in part to the fact that we were closely related officially as our two areas made up the Central Conference of South-eastern Asia. At the time of the organization of the Central Conference Mrs. Locke and I were the delighted guests of Bishop and Mrs. Bickley in their hospitable and beautiful home in Singapore. I was able to observe the statesmanlike manner in which he managed the affairs of his widely extended and most difficult area. As an administrator he had no superiors in the Episcopal Board. He was firm but tolerant and patient. He had vision and faith and consecration and versatility. He was a convincing and persuasive preacher. He knew and loved the people and was sincerely admired and loved by them in return.

In spite of the oppression and often terrible climatic conditions he traveled incessantly; and with remarkable endurance he accomplished a constructive and monumental work. At length he was stricken with that deadly tropical fever from which he never completely recovered and was the initial cause of his tragic and premature death. As completely as any martyr he laid down his life for his Lord.

Bishop Bickley had all the fine instincts of the perfect Christian gentleness. If he had not been so modest he might have said with another, "Thy gentleness hath made me great." He was a Christ man, a Christian nobleman of outstanding and ingratiating personality.

If he was less demonstrative than some men it was because the channels of his appreciation and affection flowed deep and steady. Christ could sooner correct this old world if he had workmen like George H. Bickley.

When I think of the future meetings of the bishops without him I have a lonesome place in my heart.
